

Jacob D. Dyck
bequested
$150,000
 to Boissevain
 & Morton
 Foundation

It's easy to leave a gift to the Boissevain & Morton Foundation in your will. The donation will be tax free and you can leave as much or as little as you want, after you've provided for family and friends.

The Foundation offers a range of options to serve every donor and virtually every interest. Your gift to the Boissevain & Morton Foundation is never spent or used, it keeps on giving forever in your name.

The Foundation offers a variety of ways in which individuals, families or corporations may join in this exciting undertaking:

- a gift of securities
- a bequest in a will
- a gift of life insurance by naming the Boissevain & Morton Foundation as a beneficiary
- a gift in memory of a relative or friend
- a multi-year pledge
- a gift in lieu of "Thank You" cards

Youth in Philanthropy

Youth in Philanthropy is a project involving Boissevain School and the Boissevain & Morton Foundation. With grant money funded by the Foundation, students must clarify their own values, research charities in the catchment area, and then make decisions about which charities are most worthy of the grants. Students benefit from this project as they develop decision-making and leadership skills, while developing an appreciation for their community.
